Privacy Disclosure and Consent

The Hamilton Amateur Radio Club (HARC) has adopted a Privacy Policy that we believe is consistent with the Personal Information Protection Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). The full policy document is available on the Club's web page at Hamilton Amateur Radio Club \(hamiltonarc.com\).

A written copy may be obtained by requesting one from any member of the Executive Board of Directors.

In summary, the Club collects information that we feel we require to facilitate your enjoyment as a member. We safeguard that information and promise to not disclose it without your informed consent. We will never sell or lease your contact information.

In order to qualify for its group liability insurance, we are required to provide RAC (Radio Amateurs of Canada) a list of member's names, call signs and RAC membership numbers (if applicable). We will not release your contact information to any other third party without your consent.

If you have provided an e-mail address, we will use it to send you club related messages, including newsletters and bulletins. Your e-mail address will not be visible to any other recipient. All of our group correspondence carries a link with which you can opt-out of these mailings.

Please read the following carefully and give consent where agreeable.

I give consent to have my call sign and name included in the HARC Member's Directory
I give consent to have my phone number included in the HARC Member's Directory
I give consent to have my address included in the HARC Member's Directory
I give consent to have my e-mail address given to other HARC members when requested
I give consent to have my phone number given to other HARC members when requested
I give consent to have my image published in the club newsletter and/or web page

Code of Conduct

The Hamilton Amateur Radio Club (HARC) requires that all members agree to abide by the club's Code of Conduct. The full document is available on our website, or can be provided on request. It is summarized here:

"HARC members shall not do anything which is likely to intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against any other person on the ground of gender, race, disability, age, religious or political belief, sexual orientation, social background, ethnic origin, education, language, marital or civil partnership status, or medical condition. "

I, the undersigned, have read and accept the terms above, and agree to abide by the membership code of conduct
